

This is the Rainbow Canyon Homeowner's Association Irrigation System Retrofit. They converted over 96,945 square feet of non-functional turf to low watering California friendly plants. The site incorporates public safety through sound water management by removing the potential for slipping due to over-watering and run-off.

The end result!

