

Section A – General Information

Name of Facility
Address of Dental Facility	City	State	Zip Code
Mailing Address	City	State	Zip Code
Facility Contact	Phone	Email
Name of Owner(s)		Name of Operator (s) (if different from Owner(s))

APPLICABILITY: Please select One of the following

- This practice is a dental discharger subject to EPA 40 CFR 411 as it places or removes dental amalgam. Complete Sections A, B, C, D, and E
-
- This practice is a dental discharger subject to this rule and does not place or remove amalgam except in limited emergency or unplanned, unanticipated circumstances and practices one of the following:

- | | | |
|----------------|----------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Oral Pathology | Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology | Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery |
| Orthodontics | Periodontics | Prosthodontics |

Complete Sections A and E

(Also, select if applicable) Transfer of Ownership (§ 441.50(a)(4))

- This facility is a dental discharger subject to this rule (40 CFR 441), and is submitting a new one-time dental facility compliance report because of a transfer of ownership as required by § 441.50(a)(4).

Section B – Description of Amalgam Separator or Equivalent Device

- The dental facility has installed one or more ISO 11143 (or ANSI/ADA 108-2009) compliant amalgam separators (or equivalent devices) that captures all amalgam containing waste at the following number of chairs at which amalgam placement or removal may occur.

CHAIRS

Manufacturer	Model	Year of Installation

- My facility operates an equivalent device.

Manufacturer	Model	Year of Installation
Average removal efficiency of equivalent device, per § 441.30(a)(2)-iii

Section B – Description of Amalgam Separator or Equivalent Device

- This dental facility has one or more amalgam separators or equivalent device(s) that do not meet the requirements of 40 CFR 441.30(1)(1)(i) and (ii) at the following number of chairs at which amalgam placement or removal may occur. CHAIRS
- I understand that such separators must be replaced with one or more amalgam separators or equivalent devices that meet the requirements of § 441.30(a)(1) or § 441.30(a)(2), after their useful life as ended but no later than June 14, 2017.

Section C – Design, Operation and Maintenance of Amalgam Separator or Equivalent Device

- Yes | I certify that the amalgam separator (or equivalent device) is designed and will be operated and maintained to meet the requirements in §441.30 or §441.40.
- A third -party service provider is under contract with this facility to ensure proper operation and maintenance of the amalgam separator/s or equivalent device/s in accordance with § 441.30 or § 441.40.
- Yes | Name of service provider: _____
- No | If none, provide a description of the practices employed by the facility to ensure proper operation and maintenance in accordance with § 441.30 or § 441.40.

Describe practices: _____

Section D – Best Management Practices (BMP) Certifications

- The above named dental discharger is implementing the following BMPs as specified in § 441.30(b) or § 441.40 and will continue to do so.
- Waste amalgam including, but not limited to, dental amalgam from chair-side traps, screens, vacuum pump filters, dental tools, cuspidors, or collection devices, are not discharged to the Rancho Water sewer collection system.
 - Dental unit water lines, chair-side traps, and vacuum lines are not cleaned with line cleaners that have a pH lower than 6 or greater than 8, are acidic or contain oxidizers, including but not limited to bleach, chlorine, iodine and peroxide.
 - The following are collected and recycled or managed as hazardous waste: all waste amalgam, elemental mercury, broken or unusable amalgam capsules, extracted teeth with amalgam, amalgam-containing waste from chair-side traps, screens, vacuum filters, instruments and collection devices. Empty dental amalgam capsules containing no visible materials may be disposed of as nonhazardous waste.
 - Amalgam-containing traps, filters or containers are not rinsed in sinks.
 - Amalgam, elemental mercury, broken or unusable amalgam capsules, extracted teeth with amalgam or amalgam-containing traps and filters are not placed with the medical "red-bag" or regular solid waste.
 - Dry dental amalgam waste is stored in a designated, airtight container and amalgam which is designated for recycling, is labeled "Scrap Dental Amalgam" with the name, address and phone number of the dental facility and the date on which the facility first started collecting material in the container.
 - All hauling and maintenance records are kept on site.

Dental Facility Compliance Report

EPA 40 CFR 441.50

Section E – Certification Statement

Per § 441.50(a)(2), the one-time compliance report must be signed and certified by a responsible corporate officer, a general partner or proprietor if the dental facility is a partnership or sole proprietorship, or a duly authorized representative in accordance with the requirements of § 403.12(l).

"I _____, am a responsible corporate officer, a general partner or proprietor (if the facility is a partnership or sole proprietorship), or a duly authorized representative in accordance with the requirements of § 403.12(l) of the above named dental facility, and certify under penalty of law that this document and all attachments were prepared under my direction or supervision in accordance with a system designed to assure that qualified personnel properly gather and evaluate the information submitted. Based on my inquiry of the person or persons who manage the system, or those persons directly responsible for gathering the information, the information submitted is, to the best of my knowledge and belief, true, accurate, and complete. I am aware that there are significant penalties for submitting false information, including the possibility of fine and imprisonment for knowing violations."

Phone Email Title (Partner, Corporate Officer etc Authorized Representative Signature Date

Retention Period; per § 441.50(a)(5)

As long as a dental facility subject to this part is in operation, or until ownership is transferred, the dental facility must maintain this one time compliance report and make it available for inspection in either physical or electronic form.

Return completed form to: Rancho California Water District, 42135 Winchester Road, Temecula, CA 92590